Completed, ongoing and upcoming courses
YEAR 1
Introduction to master programme	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Be more specific about what jobs the students can be qualified to after graduating, ask students what their expectation on their future positions are and how the master can support them in achieving their goals. • Introductory video could be used to disseminate this information to new students focusing on what the program is, what are you going to learn and sharing experiences from international students and messages from the program director would be very beneficial to attract future candidates to the program if it is shown on the LNU website.
4FE170	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Inform about company case at the start of the course • Lectures on topics • Presentations in small groups • Resubmission after feedback • Focus more on presentation • More time (a week) for the scenario work • Presentation techniques – include
4FE171	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Q&A in person and in conjunction to the prerecorded lectures
4FE106	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Be clearer about what the student learnt from theme 1 – different views on the topic, however, what is the main message is suggested to be discussed and communicated
4FE114, 4FE115	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Grading of the first three assignments was not clearly explained at the course as well as the progression through these assignments towards the final one • 4FE114 and 4FE115 could be read in parallel
