

2020-01-23

Information regarding the discontinuation of the course 4FE141 /4FE031/ 4FE051 Entrepreneurship and Action Based Methods 15 credits

You have previously followed the course Entrepreneurship and Action Based Methods at Linnaeus University but did not complete it. This course is now under discontinuation.

Those who have not yet finished the course hereby get the offer to take part in the final examinations. If you intend to finish the course, please contact the education administration at ekonomihogskolan@lnu.se in order to be added to the course room on MyMoodle where further instructions are available. If you took the course during the autumn semester 2019 you already have access to this course room.

Questions regarding the course are addressed to the course coordinator Erik Rosell erik.rosell@lnu.se

If you currently have pending results for this course, please wait until these are reported before contacting the education administration.

At the MyMoodle-page Discontinuation of courses at the School of Business and Economics you find additional information regarding discontinuation of the course.

Best Regards
School of Business and Economics

Frida Sjökvist, Education Administrator