

Economics Master Programme (EANA2)

If you have any questions, contact the programme director:

Thomas Giebe, thomas.giebe@lnu.se

Degree

Depending on prior qualifications, students obtain one of the following degrees:

Master of Science or Master of Science in Business and Economics
(Main field of study: Economics)

Ekonomie masterexamen (Huvudområde: Nationalekonomi) or Filosofie masterexamen (Huvudområde: Nationalekonomi)

Skills acquired in the programme

- knowledge about how the economy works (micro + macro level)
- general analytical and problem-solving skills
- analyzing and understanding data (empirical methods)
- theoretical and empirical tools for analyzing and solving society's challenges (economic policies, environmental policy, health and aging, labour markets)
- qualification for third-cycle studies (PhD, doctoral programmes)
- English as working language

Jobs / Careers

- a general education for those of you who are still undecided about their future
- broad spectrum of national and international private and public-sector jobs where economics background is required or is an advantage
- qualified analytical tasks, such as data analyst or consultant
- researcher in government and private research institutions
- (international) university research career

Prerequisites

General entry requirements for second cycle studies and specific entry requirements:

- Bachelor Degree in Economics, or business administration, or in another social science or natural science or the equivalent
- minimum of 90 credits in Economics
- minimum of 15 credits in Statistics, or in time series analysis, regression analysis or equivalent
- English B/6 or equivalent

Courses

Semester 1:

- Advanced Mathematical Economics (7.5 credits)
- Advanced Econometrics (7.5 credits)
- Advanced Microeconomics (7.5 credits)
- Advanced Macroeconomics (7.5 credits)

Semester 2:

- Advanced Empirical Methods in Economics (7.5 credits)
- Advanced Labour Economics (7.5 credits)
- Advanced Public Economics (7.5 credits)
- Advanced Economic Methodology (7.5 credits)

Semester 3: Study Abroad or in Sweden/LNU (30 credits, master level courses)

Semester 4: Master Thesis (Economics Degree Project) (30 credits)

All relevant information is on lnu.se
Search for "EANA2"

<https://lnu.se/en/programme/economics-master-programme/vaxjo-international-autumn/>

If you have any further questions, contact the programme director:

Thomas Giebe, thomas.giebe@lnu.se

